

February 4, 1994    LB 241, 903A, 905, 988, 1020, 1025, 1106A, 1139
1227, 1326
LR 277

senator and committee 1994 priority bills, LB 988 will be on the top of that list on Wednesday, assuming no other motions, confirmation reports, resolutions, motions, et cetera intervene. And we will also then, if there is not enough of those bills to keep us busy for the full morning, we'll be going back to 1993 carry over nonpriority bills and will work and do the same thing on Thursday. Friday will be a consent calendar for bills that have come out of committee without dissenting votes this year. That will take care of the next two weeks, general idea of what will be on the agenda next week. Are there any items for the record?

ASSISTANT CLERK:    Mr. President, there are.    Committee on Revenue reports LR 277CA to General File with amendments; LB 1227, General File with amendments; LB 905, indefinitely postponed; LB 1020, indefinitely postponed. Two new A bills. (Read LB 1106A and LB 903A by title for the first time.) I have a report of registered lobbyists for the current week, that will be inserted in the Journal. Agriculture offers notice of hearing on a confirmation report. Senator Lindsay has designated LB 1326 as Judiciary Committee priority bill. I have amendments to LB 988 from Senator Chambers to be printed. An announcement from Senator Abboud that the Business and Labor Committee will meet in Executive Session in 2022 immediately upon adjournment. And finally, a series of name adds: Senator Pedersen to LB 1326; Senator McKenzie to LB 241; Senator Abboud to LB 1025; and Senator Withem to withdraw his name from LB 1139. That's all that I have.    (See pages 613-16 of the Legislative Journal.)

SPEAKER WITHEM:    Chair recognizes Senator Ardyce Bohlke, the Chair of the Education Committee, for a very important message.

SENATOR BOHLKE:    Thank you, Mr. Speaker, for that acknowledgement.    I move that we adjourn until Tuesday morning at nine o'clock.

SPEAKER WITHEM:    You've heard the motion to adjourn until Tuesday morning at 9:00 a.m. All in favor say aye. Opposed. We are adjourned.
